A Peek at Our Week

January 16-19

Reading:

We will read A Year Goes By and Josef and the Topcoat. We will continue discussing seasons and work on identifying main details and making connections.

Sight Words: come, with, went

Math: We will continue learning about addition. We will practice addition strategies: using fingers, manipulatives, using a number line, and drawing a picture.

Writing: We will continue to work on correct letter formation. We will work on starting sentences with capital letters and ending sentences with a period.

Phonics: Our focus will be reviewing letter sounds. We will learn the -ug word family.

Theme: We will learn about Martin Luther King Jr. We are excited to teach the students about this historical figure.

Reminders

- Homework: A homework packet will be sent home today. Please complete by next Friday. We will begin using Raz Kids for our leveled reader. Information on how to login is attached to the homework packet. Raz Kids is an app or can be accessed online. Please click on the "Level Up" rocket to choose a book at your child's reading level.
- Report Cards: Please remember to return the report card envelopes to school as soon as possible. Thanks!
- 100th Day of School: We will be celebrating the 100th day of school on Friday, January 19th. Please see letter sent home for more information. I am also looking for some volunteers to help. Let me know if you are interested!
- January Snack calendar: Please check your January snack dates and mark your calendars! Thanks!
- Tiger Binders: Please clean out binders each night and initial your child's behavior report each night.
- Tying Shoes: Please work on tying shoes with your child at home!
- Smarty Ants: Information about Smarty Ants was sent home this week. This is a wonderful educational program that we use at school. Feel free to let your child play at home!
